Abstract: Write a summary of the article. The abstract is a brief review to help the reader quickly determine the purpose of the article and is required in English and in the original language of the publication (only applies if the original text is in German or Spanish). An abstract always appears at the beginning of a manuscript, acting as an entry point for any specialized article.

Keywords: Determine 3-4 keywords or phrases in alphabetical order, separated by commas.

I. INTRODUCTION

T his article guides the Knowmads in writing a successful research paper from the first idea to its publication. The research work done by Knowmads is highly recognized and forms an essential part of their contribution to the future that we all deserve. Below you will find the proven steps to a successful specialized publication.

A Journal article consists of 5 main sections and its number of pages varies depending on the topic from 5 to 7 pages.

Its sections usually are:

1. Abstract
2. Introduction
3. Research Elaborations
4. Results or Findings
5. Conclusions

II. IDENTIFY, RESEARCH AND COLLECT DATA

Reflect on the theme of your article to examine its feasibility:

1) Read already published works in the same field.
2) Analyze the relevance of the theme of your paper.
3) Attend conferences, workshops, and symposiums on the same or related topics.
4) Understand the terms and jargon related to your topic.

III. WRITE DOWN YOUR STUDIES AND FINDINGS
